

I am very happy with Indiana's telephone privacy law. I can finally sit down to dinner and not have to worry about how many phone calls will interrupt it. I have gone from atleast 10 telemarketing calls a day to less than 1. It is a very effective law and I would hate to have any other legislation that was not as strick put in place. Please do not hurt the good work that Indiana has done with this law. Thank you.